BULLETIN DES PROCÉDURES

This Bulletin is published at the direction of the Registrar and is for general information only. It is not to be used as evidence of its content, which, if required, should be proved by Certificate of the Registrar under the Seal of the Court. While every effort is made to ensure accuracy, no responsibility is assumed for errors or omissions.

Ce Bulletin, publié sous l'autorité de la registraire, ne vise qu'à fournir des renseignements d'ordre général. Il ne peut servir de preuve de son contenu. Celle-ci s'établit par un certificat du registraire donné sous le sceau de la Cour. Rien n'est négligé pour assurer l'exactitude du contenu, mais la Cour décline toute responsabilité pour les erreurs ou omissions.

Subscriptions may be had at $200 per year, payable in advance, in accordance with the Court tariff. During Court sessions it is usually issued weekly.

Le prix de l'abonnement, fixé dans le tarif de la Cour, est de 200 $ l'an, payable d'avance. Le Bulletin paraît en principe toutes les semaines pendant les sessions de la Cour.

The Bulletin, being a factual report of recorded proceedings, is produced in the language of record. Where a judgment has been rendered, requests for copies should be made to the Registrar, with a remittance of $10 for each set of reasons. All remittances should be made payable to the Receiver General for Canada.

Le Bulletin rassemble les procédures devant la Cour dans la langue du dossier. Quand un arrêt est rendu, on peut se procurer les motifs de jugement en adressant sa demande au registraire, accompagnée de 10 $ par exemplaire. Le paiement doit être fait à l'ordre du Receveur général du Canada.

La juge en chef McLachlin et les juges Major et Fish

Christiano Daniel Justin Paice

v. (30045)

Her Majesty the Queen (Crim.) (Sask.)

NATURE OF THE CASE

Criminal Law - Defence - Statutes - Interpretation - Whether there is a consent fight at all when the deceased as in this case, and contrary to the situation in Jobidon was the aggressor throughout and delivered the first blow - Whether the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal was in error when it held that because the Applicant consented to fight it was not open to him to say that he did not provoke the assault on him, a required element of the self defence provision of section 34(1) of the Criminal Code - Whether the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal was in error when it equated the trial judge's finding that when the Applicant delivered his blows he intended to cause serious bodily harm of more than a transient or trifling nature to an intention to cause grievous bodily harm, contrary to the express finding of the trial judge, such as to negate the self defence provision found in section 34(1) of the Criminal Code.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

November 18, 2002 Court of Queen's Bench of Saskatchewan (Kovach J.)	Applicant acquitted of a charge of manslaughter contrary to Section 236(b) of the Criminal Code

v. (30042)

Her Majesty the Queen (Crim.) (Ont.)

NATURE OF THE CASE

Criminal Law - Elements of Offence - Aggravated Assault - Sentencing - Long Term Offender Designation - Did the prosecutor fail to prove the elements of the offence of aggravated assault? - At a dangerous or long-term offender hearing can prior discreditable conduct be considered in determining whether an untried allegation of criminal offence has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt? - Did the Court err in its reliance on hearsay to prove untried allegations? - In cases where the sentencing judge has declined to make a dangerous offender designation, does the accused retain the right to be heard prior to the judge making a long-term offender designation? - How should "substantial risk" to re-offend be interpreted for purposes of determining whether a long-term offender designation should be made? - Is proof of a pattern of criminal behaviour necessary prior to designating an offender a long-term offender? - What are the factors to be considered in determining the length of a long-term supervision order? - When an accused has been designated a long-term offender, are the general principles of sentencing still applicable to the sentencing of the accused for the predicate offences? - Does a sentencing judge retain the duty to consider the aboriginal background of an offender in sentencing an accused who has been designated a long-term offender? - Did the Court err in refusing to give a two for one credit for pre-trial custody? - Are the general principles of sentencing applicable to the length of a long-term supervision order?

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

April 14, 2000 Ontario Court of Justice (MacPhee J.)	Applicant convicted of criminal harassment, assault, breach of bail conditions, threatening to cause death, kidnapping and aggravated assault contrary respectively to ss. 264(1), 266, 145(3), 264.1, 279(1.1) and 268 of the Criminal Code

v. (29972)

Sa Majesté la Reine (Crim.) (Qc)

NATURE DE LA CAUSE

Droit criminel - Infractions - Preuve - Défense - Entrave à la justice - Fabrication et utilisation de faux - Divulgence de la preuve - La Cour d'appel a-t-elle erré en droit en concluant que la narration policière, préparée par le demandeur à la demande de la poursuite, pouvait constituer un faux document au sens des art. 321 et 366 du Code criminel, L.R.C. 1985, ch. C-46? - La Cour d'appel a-t-elle erré en droit en concluant que l'absence de mens rea du demandeur, d'avoir tenté de contrecarrer le cours de la justice en cherchant à influencer son confrère, n'était pas incompatible avec le verdict de culpabilité d'avoir contrecarré la justice en altérant la preuve? - La Cour d'appel a-t-elle erré en droit dans son interprétation du privilège de non-divulgence de la preuve de documents, préparés par des avocats du poursuivant ("work product"), quant à l'opportunité de poursuivre une infraction lorsque l'accusation d'entrave à la justice concerne ladite infraction? - La Cour d'appel a-t-elle erré en droit en concluant que le juge de première instance était justifié, dans les circonstances, de donner des directives sur la défense d'erreur de faits?

DEADLINES: APPEALS

The Spring Session of the Supreme Court of Canada will start April 13, 2004.

Pursuant to the Supreme Court Act and Rules, the following requirements for filing must be complied with before an appeal can be heard:

Appellant's record; appellant's factum; and appellant's book(s) of authorities must be filed within 12 weeks of the filing of the notice of appeal or 12 weeks from decision on the motion to state a constitutional question.

Respondent's record (if any); respondent's factum; and respondent's book(s) of authorities must be filed within eight weeks after the service of the appellant's documents.

Intervener's factum and intervener's book(s) of authorities, (if any), must be filed within eight weeks of the order granting leave to intervene or within 20 weeks of the filing of a notice of intervention under subrule 61(4).

Parties' condensed book, if required, must be filed on the day of hearing of the appeal.

The Registrar shall enter the appeal on a list of cases to be heard after the respondent's factum is filed or at the end of the eight-week period referred to in Rule 36.

DÉLAIS : APPELS

La session du printemps de la Cour suprême du Canada commencera le 13 avril 2004.

Conformément à la Loi sur la Cour suprême et aux Règles, il faut se conformer aux exigences suivantes avant qu'un appel puisse être entendu:

Le dossier de l'appellant, son mémoire et son recueil de jurisprudence et de doctrine doivent être déposés dans les douze semaines du dépôt de l'avis d'appel ou douze semaines de la décision de la requête pour formulation d'une question constitutionnelle.

Le dossier de l'intimé (le cas échéant), son mémoire et son recueil de jurisprudence et de doctrine doivent être déposés dans les huit semaines suivant la signification des documents de l'appellant.

Le mémoire de l'intervenant et son recueil de jurisprudence et de doctrine, le cas échéant, doivent être déposés dans les huit semaines suivant l'ordonnance autorisant l'intervention ou dans les vingt semaines suivant le dépôt de l'avis d'intervention visé au paragraphe 61(4).

Le recueil condensé des parties, le cas échéant, doivent être déposés le jour de l'audition de l'appel.

Le registraire inscrit l'appel pour audition après le dépôt du mémoire de l'intimé ou à l'expiration du délai de huit semaines prévu à la règle 36.
